

from age and infirmity, unable to labor, my family consists of myself, my wife Priscilla aged fifty two years, who is able to labor some part of her time, her daughter Sarah a daughter of my wife by a former husband, able to labor some, but not sufficient to maintain her, Hannah my daughter eight eight years, not sufficient age to labor, George my son, a cripple aged five years wholly unable to labor, and from his deformity never will be able, having been born imperfect in his head and limbs.

Except the foregoing, I have no estate or income whatever, besides my necessary clothing and bedding.

Solomon Hallet

Subscribed, sworn to and declared, both oath and schedule on this twenty day of May 1820

Before me Nathaniel Weston, Justice of the Peace

(Faint, mostly illegible text, possibly a signature or official stamp)